Though they may gather some Left - wing support, a large majority of Labour MPs are linely to turn down me Foot Griffilms resolution. Mr. Foots line will be that as Labour MP , opposed the Government Bill which brought life peers into existence, mey schould not now put forward nominees. He believes that the House of Loras should be abolished and that Labour should not take any steps which would appear to " prop up " an out.